Agenda Item No. 4 - Discussion regarding July 22, 2017 Ethnic Fair

Mr. Price stated he received a check from Xcel Energy. He has a banner from Xcel that he will put on the front of the stage. He is still waiting on a check from American Legion Post 17. They have received $2,700 in contributions. Commissioner Clayton asked how that compared in the past. Mr. Price stated they had around $3,500 last year.

Mr. Price stated all of the radio stations should be running their PSA's. KCLV is the only station they didn't use.

Mr. Price stated he has placed the order for the t-shirts and they should be ready Friday. He had some problems with Custom Creations getting t-shirts for the workshop and ended up having to buy some from Walmart.

Mr. Price stated they had two workshops yesterday and hoped to have numbers pick up today.

Mr. Price stated Mr. Michael Watson was going to do a mixed martial arts demo during the children's workshop, but will not be able to during a class conflict.

Mr. Price stated Tyleen Caffrey's mother passed away and will not be MC'ing. He is currently looking for an MC to fill that spot.

Mr. Price stated Parks and Recreation and the library have 10 tables and James had 6.

Mr. Price stated only one of the food vendors has received their permit from the environment department. There are three food vendors at this time. They have between 15-20 exhibits, which include the health fair exhibits. Mr. Freddie Mathews, CAFB, is working on volunteers as is Tech Sgt. Justin Moore.

Commissioner Clayton asked where the Blackwater Draw mobile unit will be located. Mr. Price stated he was not sure what the unit looked like. When he sees it tomorrow then he will decide where it goes.

Mr. Price stated SWC has donated 2 2lbs of cheese. Any money made off of the raffle ticket sfom this drawing will be going to the Food Bank.

Mr. Price stated the committee needs to be at the park by 7:30 to get everything set up.

Mr. Price stated he is still waiting to hear from ENMRSH.
